

IGUDESMAN & JOO

BIG NIGHTMARE MUSIC

Musical madness – on a symphonic scale

When IGUDESMAN & JOO perform with a symphony orchestra, the musical nightmares take on epic proportions! Fans of "A Little Nightmare Music" will fall over themselves to witness the most beloved sketches of the original show amped up to equip a full-blown orchestra, entangling everyone – from the first violinist to the last percussionist – within their act.

Performed by internationally distinguished orchestras such as the New York Philharmonic, the Chicago Symphony, the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the London Philharmonic, orchestras all over the world have delighted in the creative and refreshing spirit that IGUDESMAN & JOO bring when they seize the baton. Both fun and first-class music for both orchestra and audience are mandatory.
